NEW ORDER IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

It is fully two years since a new religious order, called the Protestant Episcopal "Sisterhood of St. Mary," was established in New York, under the auspices of the Right Rev. Bishop Potter and some of the leading clergy of the Diocese, and yet very little is known of the organization, and the character of the work assigned them. According to one of the journals of the Church, its members are required to devote themselves exclusively to works of mercy, by attending the sick, aiding the poor, and disseminating Christian instruction among the young. The membership is composed of unmarried ladies or widows over thirty. Admission to membership is granted on promise to continue their pious labors until either the urgent necessities of their kindred or some special providence calls them from their sphere of duty. In such cases the bishop was empowered to release them from their obligations. There are a number of sisters in the society, and others on probation.

Recently a lady who had been a candidate for admission into the sisterhood for sometime was admitted with imposing ceremonies. Biishop Potter prepared a service especially for the occasion. Quite a number of distinguished ministers were present and near the altar. The members of the sisterhood were present, attired in the black habit of their order, which resembles that of the Catholic Sisters of Charity. After singing the hymn of Whitsuntide, closing with the Gloria Patria, the Bishop offered a few words of exhortation to the lady, relating to the work, closing with the inquiry, if she would devote herself wholly to the offices of charity and mercy in the Sisterhood of St. Mary, and obey the rules of the Sisterhood. After prayer the Bishop took her by the right hand and acknowledged her as a member, and at the same time gave her the title of "Sister Agnes," a name different from her own, and by which she will be known in future.

THE DUNKERS.

This strange body of people recently held their annual gathering near Waynesborough, Franklin county, Pa. Its session lasted one week. It was composed of delegates from all their churches scattered throughout the United States. The delegates were lodged in the neighborhood, but all were boarded on the ground. Extensive preparations were made, sufficient, it is stated, to accommodate one thousand persons. Delegates, and the multitude, were fed in imitation of our Saviour's feeding five thousand. But, unlike such occasions, instead of a few loaves of bread, they consumed about sixty barrels of flour, besides a vast amount of other eatables.

The manner of doing business was singular, consisting in rendering decisions on the practical questions that the times and circumstances rendered necessary. It was decided in the negative the right of voting in order to obtain the sense of the majority, inasmuch as voting was a custom that belonged to the world. Decisions were left to a committee of fifteen, who referred each question to a sub-committee, which sub-committee frames a decision. The committee then presents their action to the assembly. Approval is manifested by nodding; disapproval by shaking the head. Discussion usually ensues when any signs of disapproval are manifested. Among the questions, says the German Reformed Messenger, decided, were as follows: Shall we receive colored persons into the Church, and shall we salute them with the holy kiss? It was decided that they should be received into the Church, but that all the members were to be left to their own choice and taste in regard to saluting their colored brethren, with the understanding, however, that all who refused to do so were to be regarded as weak. One of their members out West leased a piece of ground to an agricultural society for a number of years. Was it right for him to do so? The answer was no! as he thereby helps to foster the spirit of pride.

SWEDENBORGIANS.

The General Convention of the New Jerusalem Church in the United States was held in Boston some time since. Over one hundred ministerial and lay delegates were present. Rev. Dr. Worcester, of Boston, presided and delivered the annual address. Rev. Mr. Goddard preached the annual sermon. The Convention supports a book publishing and printing establishment in New York. The New Jerusalem Messenger, in its eleventh year, is published there. A monthly periodical, 64 pp., is issued at Boston, and called The Jerusalem Magazine. It has been published for thirty-nine years. The total membership is estimated at 4,000. In Pennsylvania there are ten societies, two ministers, and 400 or 500 members. In Ohio ten societies, six ministers, and from 600 to 700 members.

REV. JOHN G. FEE, of Kentucky, whose name is associated with some of the noblest words and deeds uttered and performed in behalf of the oppressed of our land, and whose efforts have been rewarded and are still being blest on the soil where he tought his brave battles, is now on a brief visit to our city, and will preach for Rev. Mr. MOORE's congration, in the Academy of Music, on Sunday morning, at 10½ o'clock.

—It is stated that Gen. Cass' large fortune of five million of dollars had its origin in his investment in real estate in what is now the heart of the city of Detroit; and the heirs of the deceased statesman may thank the late Mrs. Cass, who died in 1855, for the great wealth they inherit. Repeatedly, when the property was rising in value years ago, the General was anxious to sell, and was only restrained by the earnest advice and remonstrance of his wife.

—Samuel Smith, of Bristol, died on Thursday of last week, aged eighty-eight, and his wife, aged eighty-six, died the day after. The couple had been married for sixty-seven years, and during the whole time had been separated only three nights. The funeral was observed on Sunday, and they were both buried in one grave.

—A movement is in progress in France to secure the abolition of the punishment of death. The question, which will shortly come up for consideration in the French Senate, is awakening great interest, and several leading Senators are expected to speak in favor of the abolition.

—The cashier of a bank in Galveston, Texas, carrying a bundle of bank notes amounting to $7,000, was knocked down and robbed, a few days ago, while the villains succeeded in escaping with the plunder, although several shots were fired at them.

—The new edition of the King of Saxony's German translation of Dante has been finished by the publication of the third volume, "Das Paradies." His annotations are said to place the royal commentator in the first rank of Dante scholars.

—A boy in the employ of Tyler, Ullman & Co., bankers, in Chicago, lost a package of $10,000, a day or two since, while on his way to one of the banks.

Pleasant.
That much dreaded operation of tooth drawing has been changed from pain to pleasure, by Dr. G. W. Spencer, No. 254 Penn street, if the report of friends can be relied upon. The inhalation of the nitrous oxide gas, being free from the dangers of chloroform and ether, has become quite an institution in our city.

Pure North Carolina Tar.
In Barrels, Half Barrels and Kegs, can be had at FLEMING'S DRUG STORE, No. 84 Market Street, at lowest rates; also Turpentine, Rosin, Oils and Varnishes.
Remember that the Tar is the genuine Southern article, and can be had cheaper of FLEMING than elsewhere in the city.

Refrigerators, Ice Chests.
Four and five minute Cream Freezers, Ice Pitchers, Water Coolers, Water Filters, Meat Safes, Bath Tubs, and a full line of goods generally, suitable for the heated term. Our stock is the largest, our variety the best, and our prices the lowest to be found anywhere west of the mountains. Call and see, at 124 Wood street, south side, five doors above Fifth St.
W. W. BRADSHAW.

Pittsburgh Gift Concert.
Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. McDonald, Thomson & Co., in another column. They have added some very excellent property to their attractive list of gifts. Some have heretofore objected to their schedule because they had no city property in it. They have now removed that objection effectually. Their Concert will certainly take place on the 30th inst. Every one should have a ticket for it.

Refreshing to Lager Beer Drinkers.
The use of this much loved beverage is to be prohibited by law, the Temperance Society having failed to establish a Maine or prohibitory liquor law, a substitute has been introduced and adopted by the Congress of the United States, and after six months deliberation has become the law of this Government to use Dr. C. Sill & Gillipsie's Laughing Gas in place of all other stimulants. All agents and persons wishing to use this delightful agent for drawing teeth out without pain, will call at 246 Penn street, that there may be no mistake.
P. S. Physicians will please take notice that all stimulants other than Laughing Gas will be excluded in their prescriptions under penalty of the law, as made and approved.

Get the Best.
They Always Give Satisfaction.
Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case to know how to articulate the teeth, so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly. His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would be better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth, that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number, there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums for eight dollars. Remember, his number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand.

A Splendid Mansion for Sale.
At seventeen thousand dollars, five thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars at the time of sale, the balance in one and two years. This property is beautifully situated on Mount Washington, opposite the mouth of Penn street, in full view of the three rivers, Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities, and only twenty minutes walk from Wood or Fifth streets. There are seven acres of rich soil and a beautiful grove of large trees, with an abundance of choice fruit and rare ornamental trees. Also a never failing spring of water. The buildings and improvements consist of a first rate modern, well finished dwelling house of fourteen rooms; a large sized wash house, with copper boiler arranged to use coal or wood; a large chicken house and yard; a complete stable and carriage house; a green or hot house, in a most splendid condition, with double glass roof; boiler and pipes for heating, estimated to have cost five thousand dollars; three large cisterns, supplied with pumps, all in good order, and one of them holds a thousand barrels of water; a large and complete ice house. Such chances for a good home are seldom offered. For particulars enquire of C. Sill, 246 Penn street.
P. S.—Measures are being taken for the construction of an inclined railroad running up the hill from South Pittsburgh, which will be completed in the course of a yerr, when Mount Washington will become the most desirable location for private residences, it being entirely out of the smoke and dust of the city.

The Great Acclimating Tonic.
Wherever Hostetter's Bitters, the celebrated American prevention of Climatic Diseases, have been introduced into unhealthy regions, their effects in sustaining the health, vigor, and animal spirits of those whose pursuits subjected them to extraordinary risks from exposure and privation, have been wonderful. In the army the superiority of this article over every other invigorating and alterative medicine has become so manifest where used, that it is relied upon, exclusively, as a protection against Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, and Bowel complaints of every kind. The soldiers say it is the only stimulant which produces and keeps up a healthy habit of body in unwholesome locations. For the unacclimated pioneer and settler it is the most reliable of all safeguards against sickness. Throughout the United States it is considered the most healthful and agreeable of all tonics, and altogether unequaled as a remedy for Dyspepsia. The medicinal ingredients are all vegetable, and are held in solution by the most wholesome stimulant known—the Essence of Rye. "Hostetter's Bitters" are manufactured at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and no less than 50,000 dozen bottles are sold annually by druggists.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

FROM NEW YORK.

Fatal Case of Cholera Yesterday—Twenty-two Cases Reported in Twenty-four Hours—Infected Places Disinfected—Temperature Torrid—Attempted Murder and Suicide—Shot in a Barroom—Beauregard Going to Assist Garibaldi.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A fatal case of cholera is reported to have occurred in the Bowery yesterday.

Within the last twenty-four hours twenty-two cases of cholera were reported at the office of Dr. Dalton, sanitary Superintendent, six of which were declared genuine. In every case the regions surrounding the several cases were duly disinfected.

The temperature is torrid, the thermometer standing 94 on the streets to-day.

A young woman named Eleanor Jones, who claims to be the wife of a Dr. Trech, shot herself this morning after making an attempt upon his life. Jealousy is the supposed cause.

James L. Frazer was shot, it is supposed fatally, in a fracas in a Fulton street bar-room to-day.

A London letter says it is rumored that Gen. Beauregard has proffered his services to Victor Emanuel, and that George N. Sanders is on his way to join Garibaldi.

THE PORTLAND DISASTER.

Car Loads of Provisions Sent from Boston.

THE FIRE BREAKS OUT AFRESH.

The City in Total Darkness.

EXTENT OF THE CONFLAGRATION.

PORTLAND, ME., July 6.—Five car loads of provisions came down from Boston last night and are being distributed to the people. A fire company so strong, from abroad, have been working all night on the ruins. Large amounts of supplies have came in from various places. They were greatly needed. Most of the provision stores had been burned. There was hardly anything left to be bought, and our people were mostly living on bread alone. The Atheneum library was totally destroyed. The city building and Custom House blazed up again this morning, and occasioned another alarm, the city was in darkness last night owing to the gas being cut off. A rain is falling now, but it is scarcely needed as the flames were so fierce that all vegetation is burned off the ground. The First and Second National Bank fund and securities are all saved, and there is no doubt in regard to any of the others. Ira P. Farrington, should be added to the list of clothing dealers who have suffered. The brass works and establishment of L. Rockett was not burned as reported. The tremendous exertions to save Winslow & Dolin's planing mill were successful, which saved Commercial street and the lower side of Free street. The National Traders' Bank papers and money are all safe; also the papers of the Ocean Insurance Company. Workmen are busily clearing the ruins, and everybody is at work getting in temporary residences and places of business. Our shade trees are mostly ruined. The newspaper offices are issuing slips, and will probably go out of town to print for the present. Owing to the noble charity of other towns and cities, no one is suffering for food.

SECOND DISPATCH.

PORTLAND, ME., July 6.—Everybody is cheerful and hopeful. No very heavy failures will occur, and not many of any kind. The city will be rebuilt in better shape than before and as rapidly as possible. Contracts are being made and lots cleared. Securities were mostly deposited in the banks and are safe, and will be quickly put into brick and mortar. The Insurance Companies, with a few exceptions, are responsible. The fire caught from a cracker thrown by a boy among some shavings in Degnou's cooper shop. The sugar house adjoining was as safe and well protected from fire as any building of the kind could be, being built of brick in sections with a slated roof. Beyond this building was the most populous Irish quarters, built up with very old wooden buildings. Beyond this, the buildings were safe and well apparently, but nothing could withstand the tremendous gale of wind blowing. The strongest and thickest building went like timber. The fronts of the best buildings on Middle street did not seem to stand five minutes. After the flags came through the side of the street, before they were all ablaze. The flames roamed across the street like a huge wave on the ocean beach, either through or over everything in its path. Out of the direct block much might have been saved, but the whole fire force were obliged to fight the flames in front. In no part did the water fail until the flames had passed up. The whole passage was made in less than twelve hours, and it only stopped at the open pastures in Monjoy. The fire proof buildings were hardly safer than the wooden ones.

The Custom House in which are the Post-offices and United States Courts, was built by the Government to be entirely fire proof with nothing inflamable about it except the furniture and contents, and with quite an open space in front with open streets on two sides, but the upper part is mixed inside and masses of stone work peeling from the outside. In some cases wooden buildings were saved while brick buildings were burned; on the easterly corner of Myrtle and Cumberland streets a wooden building was saved, and every brick building in the square was destroyed.

Heretofore we have considered the city particularly safe from conflagrations. Our fire department is excellent, and the celerity with which dangerous fires have been subdued seemed sometimes marvellous. All the old and dangerous buildings are swept out clear and the city will be rebuilt with the greatest attention to future security. Our shade trees were a wonderful protection on the outskirts of the fire and to them some houses owe entirely their safety.

Our business places are getting considerably mixed. Wood & Son, brokers, are in Mitchell's wholesale grocery on Fore street, and Davis Bros., stationers, are happy in a spruce gum factory with their works. The Cumberland Bank promises to have a new building, and Lowell & Sentor, the principal jewelers, will have a new store on their old site in sixty days.

It is reported that fishing vessels have carried away immense quantities of goods, and that much was carried off into the country, but most of it was not stolen.

There were some cases of extortion by teamsters and hackmen. One man paid a hackman sixty dollars to carry his wife and children to a place of safety; but most of the men worked at the regular rates.

LATEST.

PORTLAND, July 7—1 A. M.—Fears are entertained that gangs of thieves from other cities may attempt to rob some of the banks. The citizens have armed themselves for protection of property.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Communication of Secretary Stanton to the House Giving Information Relative to Commutation of Rations to Union Prisoners—Mexican News.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The Secretary of War has sent a letter to the House in relation to the resolution of June 14th, calling for information in regard to the commutation of rations allowed to Union soldiers who were prisoners of war, stating that by a general order of February 14th, 1862, rations to the Union soldiers held as prisoners of war in the rebel States were commuted at cost prices, and the sum paid was about two and a half millions. After hostilities terminated, and the prisoners were all released, it became manifest that commutation of claims were becoming the subject of speculation and traffic by agents and brokers, and in the absence of any specific appropriation, the order for commutation of rations was suspended until Congress should make an appropriation, if deemed proper, and provide regulations which might secure the money to the persons properly entitled thereto, and protect them against fraud and silent speculation. The outstanding claims, principally in the hands of agents, assignees, brokers, &c., were estimated at $5,400,000.

Letters from Vera Cruz, dated the 21st ult., were received to-day in this city, and emanating from reliable sources, contain the intelligence that General Bassaine had made an agreement with Maximilian by which the latter would receive from the French chest 500,000 francs every month for his most urgent expenses, besides having his Austrian and Belgian troops paid by the French Government.

Decision Under Civil Rights Bill—Statement of the Case—Spunky Defendant.

BALTIMORE, July 6.—An important decision has been rendered by Judge Bowie, Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, under the Civil Rights bill. The facts of the case are briefly as follows: Dr A. H. Somers, of Rockville, Montgomery county, committed an assault upon a colored man in the streets of Rockville, beating him very severely. The colored man's wife sued out a warrant before a Justice of the Peace against Somers, on which he was arrested and arraigned before the magistrate. The counsel of Dr. Somers argued that the warrant was illegal under the laws of Maryland, contending that no negro or mulatto could be a competent witness against a white person.

The Justice decided that said State law has been abrogated, and was null and void under the Civil Rights bill, and required the accused to give bail to answer at the Circuit Court. This Somers refused and he was committed. Thereupon his counsel applied to Chief Justice Bowie for a writ of habeas corpus, which His Honor refused to grant, giving a written opinion sustaining the decision of the magistrate and maintaining the constitutionality of the Civil Rights bill so far as relates to the question in dispute. The Judge, in conclusion, says:

"I am aware that there are many and serious objections to the constitutionality of the law, and upon other points, yet as it is not clearly unconstitutional in the particulars in question, I am bound by the usage and decision of the highest courts, to assume that Congress has not violated its constitutional obligations. Not being able to perceive clearly and unequivocally a breach of the federal constitution in the act of Congress, entitled an act to protect all persons in their civil rights, &c. in making negroes competent to testify. Without expressing any opinion on the other sections of the law, I must overrule the motion to quash the warrant and remand the prisoner to the custody of the officer."

FROM TENNESSEE.

The Legislature Meet, but Have No Quorum—Difficulty With Negroes on a Plantation, One Killed.

NASHVILLE, July 6.—The Legislature met to-day, but there was no quorum. Mr. Dunnoway, of Bedford county, sent in his resignation to the Governor.

The first cotton bloom of the season was received here to-day by Mr. Curry.

Two negroes on the plantation of W. F. Ballantine, refusing to work, were ordered off by the Superintendent. They armed themselves, returned and engaged in a fight with the Superintendent and his assistants. One negro was killed and another wounded. The latter was committed for trial.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, July 6, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Edmunds, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the House resolution for a Joint Committee on Retrenchment.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a bill for the equalization of the bounties.

The Committee of Conference on the Tax Bill made a report. The committee report in favor of a compromise on the tax on cotton, making it three cents a pound.

Mr. Wilson, in the course of the debate on the bill, said he hoped the present Tariff bill would be defeated if it was not very much modified. New England did not want the bill. Her interests were already sufficiently protected. The demand for the new tariff came from Pennsylvania and the northwest.

The Senate agreed to the Conference report on the tax bill.

The bill to provide for the payment for quartermaster stores and subsistence supplies furnished to the army was then taken up.

Mr. Fessenden from the Conference Committee on the tax bill, made a report which was read at length. Mr. Fessenden at the conclusion of the reading said there were a great many amendments to the bill, but most of them were verbal. The Committees had amended the subject with very great care, and had no difficulty in coming to a conclusion, except upon a few points, which were finally settled to the satisfaction of all. It would be too much of a task for him (Fessenden) to undertake to go through the whole bill, and explain all the amendments, but if any Senators had any questions to ask in regard to any article in the bill, he would be happy to answer him. Mr. Saulsbury said that when this bill came from the House, there was a tax of 5 cents per pound on cotton. The Committee on Conference had reduced it to 2 cents, the House was glad of that, but considering the situation of the people in that section where cotton was grown, reduced as they were to abject poverty, scarcely able to get bread for their families, unrepresented in Congress, he thought it unjust to single out an article of agriculture for taxation. He was totally opposed to taxing cotton, unless other products of the farm were taxed. While the bill as presented by the Conference Committee was more favorable than as it came from the House, yet as the single article of cotton was selected out of all agricultural products for taxation, he could not vote for the bill.

Mr. Hendricks said that the Senate was informed early in the session by the proper departments of the Government, that the condition of the finances was such as would allow a very large reduction in taxation. He (Hendricks) was informed by Mr. Sherman that the revenue from internal taxes might be reduced seventy-five cents on the dollar. He hoped then to see some reduction in taxes that have been upon the agricultural interests of the country, but there was no such relief. There was an extraordinary tax on whisky, although he thought an experience of ten years had shown that that tax had defeated the revenue. He then spoke in opposition to the cotton tax, and characterized the bill unfavorable to agricultural interests.

Mr. Sherman said that the agricultural interests were better cared for than any other in this bill, nearly all the burdens of the bill were put upon wealth. Articles of luxury were taxed heavy, agricultural implements were not free. He doubted the sincerity of Mr. Hendricks when he said he did not oppose the bill from any sectional point, it would be within bounds to say that if Ohio paid ten millions of tax under the last bill she would pay but five millions under this, Indiana would pay one or two millions less under this than under the former bill, and so of other States.

Mr. Hendricks replied to Mr. Sherman's remarks. He maintained that the States of Indiana and Ohio were interested in the cotton tax; it was to their interest to promote the growth of cotton in the South, as the farmers of the Northwest found their best markets in the South for their corn and other products.

Mr. Wilson said that Mr. Morrill reported the bill, but men from the Northwest in the wool interest originated it. Whoever said the present tariff came from New England, said what was not true.

Mr. Hendricks said that after the remarks of Mr. Wilson, he felt sure that the tariff bill would be defeated. He hoped it would. He would join with Mr. Wilson in laboring for its defeat. He would join with New England in demanding revenue tariff, and that would be protection enough under the present system.

Mr. Wilson said that the high duty on wool and iron was put on the tariff bill against the wishes of the Chairman of the Committee in the House.

Mr. Guthrie said he was opposed to the tax on cotton, and also to the tax on sugar made from cane. His judgment was against any tax on cotton, but he felt compelled to yield.

Mr. Johnson said he rose merely to say that he thought there should be no tax on cotton, since he believed it would bear the tax agreed upon by the Committee, though it would have that recommended by the House.

The report of the Conference Committee was agreed to and sent to the House.

Mr. Poland called up the bill to provide for the payment for quartermaster's stores and subsistence supplies furnished to the army of the United States.

The question was on Mr. Wilson's amendment to strike out the provision authorizing payment for stores not properly receipted for.

A discussion took place participated in by Messrs. Williams, Clarke, Howe, Fessenden, Saulsbury, Howard and Trumbull.

Mr. Wilson's amendment was agreed to by a vote of seventeen yeas against thirteen nays.

At 4:15 the Senate took a recess until 7 P. M.

Evening Session.—The Senate met at 7 P. M. and proceeded according to the resolution of yesterday to the consideration of private bills from the Committee on Pensions. A number of bills granting pensions to widows and wounded soldiers of the late war were passed. A bill was passed granting pensions to Provost Marshals and Assistant Provost Marshals, if wounded, the former as Captains, and the latter as Lieutenants; also giving two dollars each per month additional to the widows of soldiers for every child under 16 years of age, dependent upon them for support.

At 9:15 P. M., the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Stevens having got leave to make a personal explanation, filed for publication in the Globe, some remarks in connection with the statement of Mr. Le Blond, after the speech of Mr. Harris, in which it was asserted that the views of Mr. Harris and of Mr. Stevens in regard to secession coincided. He (Stevens) denied that during the four years of the war, the rebellious States were, in any sense, in the Union.

The bill to grant pensions to the officers and soldiers of the war of 1812 came up in order. After debate, the bill was modified so as to include sailors. The bill was then recommitted to the Committee on Invalid Pensions, together with all amendments and substitutes, so as to have a complete bill reported.

Mr. Perham asked leave to report a bill granting pensions to those soldiers of the war of 1812 who are in necessitous circumstances.

Mr. Hale asked whether the bill included soldiers of the late war.

Mr. Perham replied that it did not.

Mr. Hale objected to any bill that did not extend the same right to the soldiers of the late war as to the soldiers of any other war.

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, from the Committee on Patents, reported a bill to allow James C. Cook to apply for an extension of his patent button backs and connecting eyes.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Schofield in the chair, and resumed the consideration of the Tariff bill.

Mr. Kelly moved to reduce the duty on Italian Marble from one dollar to seventy cents per cubic foot, and spoke in its support.

After considerable debate it was rejected.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, moved to reduce the ad valorum duty on Polish Marble from seventy to fifty-three per cent.

Mr. Hogan opposed the amendment. The Committee rose to close the debate, and Mr. Guthrie presented the report of the Conference Committee on the Internal Revenue Bill, and proceeded to explain the same.

Mr. Stevens inquired what had been done with the provision requiring cases of alleged frauds on the revenue to be tried before a United States Court, instead of being decided by Assessors.

Mr. Hooper replied that the House receded from that provision, being assured by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that there were sufficient provisions of the same kind in other parts of the bill.

Mr. Stevens thought that was the most important provision in the bill, and that the bill should not pass without it.

Mr. Ross inquired what disposition had been made of the provision about the income tax.

Mr. Hooper explained that the Senate had struck out the whole section, as the income tax for this year had been laid, and the Senate deemed it expedient that there should be no action on the subject till next session.

In that view the House Committee concurred. In regard to cotton, the tax was fixed at three cents per pound instead of two cents, as fixed by the Senate, and five cents fixed by the House in relation to gas companies and horse railroads. The Senate provision allowing them to add on the taxes, was agreed to, but only to continue till the 30th of April next, in order to give them time to apply to the State Legislatures, the horse railroad companies in the meantime being bound to sell packages of tickets of not less than twenty at the legal rate, with the actual tax added. In relation to the exemption of small manufacturers, such as tailors and shoemakers, the Senate Committee had concurred with the House in exempting one thousand dollars' worth of work, exclusive of the value of the material.

Mr. Eggleston protested against the action of the Committee in regard to Gas and Railroad Companies, and he hoped that Congress would sit till December next rather than submit to it.

Mr. Schenck made an argument in the same sense, and said if there were no other objection to the report of the Committee, he would vote against it on that ground.

Mr. Morrill expressed the opinion that this was a very small matter to make a fuss about; that the action of the Committee was correct and proper.

Further debate was closed by the previous question, and the House proceeded to vote on the Conference Report, which was agreed to—yeas 71, nays 57.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole, Mr. Schofield in the Chair, and resumed the consideration of the tariff bill, having first ordered an evening session.

The amendments pending to the paragraph taxing marble were rejected.

On motion of Mr. Hogan the ad valorem duty on polished marble was increased from 10 to 15 per cent., and a new paragraph added, taxing marble slabs and tiles one dollar per cubic foot, and 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, moved to strike out the paragraph taxing nickel.

Mr. Garfield moved to amend the paragraph by making the duty on nickel 25 per cent. ad valorem.

Mr. Moorhead moved to amend by increasing the duty from forty to fifty cents per pound. All the amendments were rejected and the paragraph stands as reported.

On motion of Mr. Thayer, wood pencils filled with lead were taxed 50 cents per gross, and 30 per cent. ad valorem, for each length of six and three-quarter inches.

The Committee rose. The House then took a recess.

Evening Session.—On motion of Mr. O'Neill, the duty on metalic pens was increased by adding 25 per cent. ad valorem, the gross to consist of 144.

On motion of Mr. Morrill, the duty on percussion caps was increased by adding 40 per cent. ad valorem.

On motion of Mr. Garfield, a paragraph was added taxing hair pins of iron wire 50 per cent. ad valorem.

On motion of Mr. Kelly, a paragraph was added taxing gold wire 20 per cent. ad valorem.

On motion of Mr. Spaulding, a duty of five dollars per ton was put upon grindstones, finished, and 30 per cent. ad valorem on Bristol stone and Bristol brick.

Mr. Griswold moved to strike out the tax on analine dyes, and to tax analine oil 10 per cent. advalorem. Agreed to.

Mr. Rollins moved to reduce the tax on preparations or fluid extracts not provided for from ten to two dollars, which was agreed to.

Mr. Williams moved to add a paragraph taxing soda ash, solicate of soda and sal soda and caustic soda, which was rejected.

Mr. Strouse moved to reduce the duty on living animals from 30 to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

Mr. Wentworth opposed, and

Mr. Ross moved to increase the duty to fifty per cent., which, he said, would be much below the protection claimed by Maryland for her manufactures.

Mr. Pike argued that this was a Western tariff bill got up for the benefit of the West, swinging into Pennsylvania and leaving New England out in the cold, which was careless whether this bill was passed a year hence or now.

Without taking a vote on the amendment the Committee rose, and the House at ten P. M. adjourned.

Public Meetings for the Relief of Portland Sufferers.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A meeting of prominent citizens is to be held to-morrow afternoon, in behalf of the sufferers by the fire at Portland.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 5.—A public meeting was held in this city this morning, to take measures for the relief of the suffers at Portland, Maine.

BOSTON, July 6.—A public meeting will be held in the Exchange to-morrow to devise practical means of aid for Portland. The cash contributions in Boston for that purpose already amounts to $25,000.

The citizens of Newburyport, Conn., raised $10,000.

ST. LOUIS, July 6.—At a meeting of the merchants on 'Change to-day, a committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions for the Portland sufferers. Much sympathy is felt for them by the citizens generally, and a handsome sum will doubtless be raised.

Canada and the United States—Cost of the Fenian Raid.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A special to the Tribune from Montreal, July 6, says: The bill introduced into Congress to establish conditions for the admission of these provinces into the Union, has caused an angry feeling in Government circles. The bill is looked upon as a bid to the provinces to throw off their allegiance to Great Britain, and join what is termed here "the political confusion of the United States." The feeling is against any such step.

The Commissioner appointed to ascertain the damage done in the late raids of the Fenians, report that in the east it will amount to from $15,000 to $25,000, and in the west from $50,000 to $70,000.

Stabbed by a School Teacher—Probable Homicide.

LOUISVILLE, July 6.—E. J. McGinnis, a teacher, recently chastised a son of Doctor Roberts for refusal to participate in gymnastic exercises, and was dismissed from the school. Dr. Roberts published a letter in the Democrat in relation to the matter. McGinnis overtook Roberts and stabbed him, probably fatally. McGinnis has not yet been arrested.

Judge Arrested—Remains of Rev Theodore Clapp.

NEW ORLEANS, July 6.—Justice Read, of Opelousas, was arrested and sent to New Orleans for refusing to execute the Civil Rights bill.

The remains of Rev. Theodore Clapp will be removed to New Orleans, from Louisville, and a monument erected.

Great Trot at Boston.

BOSTON, July 6.—Over six thousand persons were present to witness the trot to-day over the Riverside track, between the stallion George Wilkes and the mare Lady Thorn, for a purse of two thousand dollars. The race was won, in three straight heats, by Lady Thorn. Time—2:29½, 2:31½ and 2:28¼.

Statue of Washington Restored.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The statue of Washington, removed from the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., by Gen. Hunter on his raid up the Valley of Virginia, has passed through Alexandria by express on its way to that place, an order having been issued for its restoration.

Intense Heat in Poughkeepsie.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 6.—The most intense heat prevailed here to-day. The mercury at noon marked one hundred in the shade. One death is reported thus far from sunstroke.

Another Munificent Bequest.

BOSTON, July 6.—George Peabody on Thursday made another gift of one hundred thousand dollars to the Peabody Institute, established by him at South Danvers.

River and Weather at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, July 6.—River falling slowly with five feet of water in canal.

Mercury 90 deg. at noon. Weather cloudy, indicating a storm. Barometer, 29.60.

Probable Recovery of Gen. Lane.

LEAVENWORTH, July 6.—General Lane continues favorable, and his friends are hopeful.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

Aid for the Portland Sufferers.

In our last issue we suggested the propriety of the authorities calling at once a public meeting of the citizens, in order to forward substantial aid to the sufferers from the late destruction, by fire, of Portland city, Maine. As yet the authorities have not acted upon the suggestion. We learn, however, that Rev. Henry D. Moore, of the Plymouth Congregational church, has already forwarded substantial pecuniary aid from this city, the contributions of a number of charitable citizens. Pittsburghers should not forget how thankfully they received the aid extended them in the bitter time of suffering attendant upon the great conflagration of 1845. In Portland thousands of families are in destitution and really suffering for the necessaries of life, and now is the accepted hour to forward aid. No time should be lost in the good work. Contributions in money will be promptly forwarded by Rev. H. D. Moore, and it is to be hoped that our citizens will do their full duty towards aiding the suffering people of Portland. Contributions left at this office will be duly acknowledged and forwarded.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

In this court, on Thursday, the case of Leopold Hart, Frederick Tatample and John Walls, indicted for riot, was tried. The parties were charged with acting in a riotous manner at the house of John Freunholtz, in Lawrenceville, on the evening of May 21st. The jury found a verdict of guilty. Sentence deferred.

Yesterday John Freunholtz was placed on trial on an indictment of assault and battery, Leopold Hart, one of the defendants in the preceding case appearing as prosecutor. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Richard Smith, proprietor of a drinking saloon in the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, plead guilty to three indictments for selling liquor without license. He was sentenced to pay fines aggregating two hundred and fifty dollars, the costs in each case, and to undergo forty days imprisonment in the county jail. Fred. Pinkerton also plead guilty to a similar charge, and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs. John Walls plead guilty on three indictments for a similar offence, Thomas Smith on two, and Rudolph Bechtold on one. Sentence deferred.

The business of the court was concluded in the afternoon, and the jurors were discharged.

Corner Stone Laid.—The corner stone of the new Catholic Church at Perrysville was laid on Wednesday, with all the pomp and solemnity usual on such occasions. Rt. Rev. M. Domenec, assisted by several clergymen, officiated. The new church will occupy a beautiful site in the centre of the town, and will cost, when completed, the handsome sum of $5,000. The expenses of its construction will be liquidated by the congregation alone.

Sent to Jail.—William Barker and Alfred Johnson, whose arrest for attacking two ladies on Liberty street while returning from the Theatre we noticed in yesterday's GAZETTE, were arraigned before Mayor M'Carthy yesterday, but the ladies declining to prosecute, the serious charge of assault and battery was abandoned, the accused escaping with a thirty days' sojourn in the County Jail for disorderly conduct.

Plead Guilty.—Annie Lisdale was before Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, yesterday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of Christian Schild. In the absence of the prosecutor from his home on the "Fourth," Annie entered his dwelling, and abused his wife, calling her a thief, and other cruel names. Annie put in a plea of guilty, and gave bail in the sum of $300 to keep the peace.

Endeavored to Steal a Horse.—Brown Dawson entered Andrew Jackman's livery stable, on Penn street, in the Fourth ward, at a late hour on Thursday night, and endeavored to steal a horse by taking it through an opening in the rear of the stable. Officer Gupples succeeded in arresting Brown yesterday and lodging him in the tombs, where he yet remains.

Stole a Razor.—An individual named J. Lankerd entered a barber's shop in the Diamond, Allegheny, on Thursday, and while awaiting his turn to be shaved, was seen to pocket a razor belonging to the proprietor of the saloon. He was arrested and made to give bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at Court.

Fitted Up.—The Union League, of Harrisburg, have fitted an elegant club house in the College Block, on Third street, in that city.

The Police Make a Descent on River Pirates.

Yesterday morning the authorities gained some information that led them to believe that a gang of desperadoes had lodged themselves in a small trading boat, called the York State, lying at the foot of Wayne street, in the Allegheny river.

The police were placed on the alert to watch the movements of the gang, and about one o'clock, officer Mowry, of the special police in company with several of the night watch, observed three men go down to the wharf and enter the boat. The police followed close upon their heels, and ere the door could be closed they succeeded in gaining an entrance, and before the trio could make any attempt at resistance or escape, they were captured and a posse of police detailed to take them to the tombs, where, in less than half an hour they were safely lodged. Believing that there were others of the gang who had not yet been captured, the police determined to wait for further arrivals, and by way of killing time, they employed themselves in making a rigid examination of the craft. In one corner of the cabin, which contained only a few benches, which had been made to serve as bed and table for this select coterie, was piled a lot of iron such as capstain pins, ring bolts and stove plates. In an opposite corner a lot of clothing—evidently stolen—together with a pile of rags among which ware several yards of tarpaulin canvass, a couple of small tow lines and an endless variety of small articles, which have doubtless been pilfered from the Allegheny river packets. Just as they had finished their examination, and were about to depart, they heard a call from the shore. Going to the door, one of the officers asked what the new-comer wanted, the answer was to send "Tilly out as they were going after that." Instead of sending Tilly, officer Mowrey went to the assistance of the individual on shore, who, before he was aware how matters stood, had a pair of "darbys" placed upon him, and was marching under escort to the "Lewis mansion." The three first who were captured refused to give their names, but the latter, with an air of stately dignity, stated that he rejoiced in the cognomen of Geo. Grant. He furthermore stated that their arrest was owing to the indiscretion of a certain lady, who had betrayed them, and expressed his sorrow that he did not drown her on some former occasion.

Benefit and Presentation to Harry Lewis at the Theatre.

The farewell benefit of the veteran actor and stage manager Harry Lewis, at the Theatre, last evening, was a perfect ovation. The bill was good, embracing the interesting melo drama entitled "The Gambler's Fate," and the laughable farce of "The Artful Dodger," in both of which the beneficiary appeared. At the conclusion of the first piece, Mr. Lewis was called before the footlights, when Mr. T. T. Everett, in behalf of a delegation of the old man's friends, presented him with a handsome edition of Shakespeare in two volumes, accompanying the gift with a brief and neat speech, to which Mr. Lewis responded, stating that he was about to close forever his connection with the stage, to which he had been personally connected for almost half a century. During all that time he never had found a spot in which he felt more at home than in this city, and for the many acts of kindness which he had received at the hands of our citizens, he wished to return his sincere and heartfelt thanks. In conclusion he thanked his friends for the beautiful present he had just received, which he should cherish as long as life lasted. In bidding adieu to Mr. Lewis we cannot refrain from wishing that we were in possession of some wonderful elixeir by which we might restore him to youth and professional usefulness once more, but such a wish is beyond the power of attainment, and Harry's advanced age will only allow him to sit tamely down upon the stage of life and wait until the great prompter, death, rings down the curtain on the drama of his eartaly existence.

Let Them be Removed.—It is about high time that unsightly piles of bricks which adorn Fifth street upon either side, were removed. Pedestrians and others have suffered sufficiently from these nuisances and we do not see why they are permitted to remain so long standing, blocking up most effectually our main thoroughfare and jeopardizing the lives of our citizens. If our memory serves us aright, there is an ordinance in the city code, which if enforced would long since have necessitated the speedy removal of these unsightly warts upon our most prided thoroughfare. Will the authorities look to the matter?

Season Closing.—The regular dramatic season of the Pittsburgh Theatre closed this evening with a benefit to the officers, doorkeepers and attaches of the establishment. On Monday evening the celebrated Duprez & Green's Minstrels take possession of "old Drury," for the purpose of giving a brief season of minstrelsy. This Company is par excellence in every respect, being made up of the best material in the profession. The seating capacity of the old house will be fully tested during their stay.

Had a Hearing.—John Loup, charged with the shooting of John Nonnon alias Sharpneck, at Mansfield, on Monday evening last, had a hearing at the Mayor's office yesterday. The evidence elicited showed the facts to be as stated in our issue of Wednesday morning. In the absence of several witnesses for the defence, Loup was remanded to jail for a further hearing on the 13th. A charge of larceny has also been preferred by Sharpneck against the prisoner.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—Two men named Daniel and Timothy Dugan provoked a quarrel with a certain Jerry Sullivan and his wife Sarah, at Irvin Station, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, on the Fourth, and in the melee that ensued Jerry and his wife were terribly beaten. The assailing party were brought before Alderman Donaldson, who held them for a further hearing to-day. They are charged with aggravated assault and battery.

Whipped His Wife.—Aloise Kumpff was brought before Alderman Taylor yesterday, charged with assault and battery on oath of his wife Caroline. Mrs. K. testified that her unworthy spouse met her on Penn street, near the Fifth ward market house, yesterday and without assigning any cause for his conduct, began to whip her in a shameful manner. In default of $300 bail, Aloise was committed for trial.

Mammoth Train.—A few days since engines No. 256 and 258 drew the largest freight train over the Pennsylvania Railroad since the formation of the road. There were eighty-six loaded cars in the train, reaching a fraction over three-quarters of a mile in length. The engineers on this large train were Frank Hauser and James Spielman, while the whole was in charge of Joseph Nicklin, Conductor.

Boy Drowned—Inquest.—A boy named Joseph Schweilbach was drowned in the Monongahela river on Thursday evening, while bathing. His body was recovered yesterday, and an inquest was held by acting Coroner Alderman Donaldson. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered. The deceased resided with his mother, in the Sixth ward.

Assaulted.—James Pate entered the beer saloon of John Geibe, in the Third ward, Allegheny, yesterday, and called for some liquor, which he got, and was about to leave the house when he was assaulted by a gang of rowdies and beaten in a cruel manner. He has made oath against the parties, and they will doubtless be arrested.

Committed for Burglary.—The case of H. Dollison, charged with burglariously entering the house of William Bell, in the Sixth ward, and feloniously carrying off property to the amount of $150, was brought up for a hearing before Mayor McCarthy yesterday, and resulted in Dollison being committed to jail for trial.

Runover.—Thomas Morgan, a resident of Lower St. Clair township, while driving a milk wagon along the old Brownsville turnpike, on Thursday, fell from his seat beneath the wheels of the wagon, which passed over his stomach, injuring him internally to such an extent that it is thought he cannot recover.

Getting Worse.—Thomas Hill, who was injured on Thursday by jumping from a train on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad —a full account of which was given in yesterday's issue—is sinking rapidly, his life being despaired of.

Surety of the Peace.—Edward McCormick charged Jacob Metz, a butcher, residing in Birmingham, with surety of the peace, yesterday, before Justice Ammon. Metz was arrested and gave bail for his appearance at court.

Crowded.—The Opera House last evening was crowded to repletion by a very select audience, composed chiefly of ladies. The Hanlon Brothers, as we expected, have proved an immense card to the management.

Trinity Musical Services.—There will be a full musical service (without sermon) at Trinity Church, Sixth street, to-morrow (Sunday) evening, commencing at seven o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

Killed.—James Lynch, a brakesman on the Pittsburgh & Erie Railroad, was killed a few days since, by being struck on the head with the timbers of a bridge under which a train was passing.

Dividend.—The Pittsburgh National Bank of Commerce has declared a dividend of five per cent. on the capital stock, (free from Government tax) out of the last six month's profit.

Boy Burned.—A lad named Peter Montgomery was severely burned at Harrisburg on the Fourth of July, by the explosion of a quantity of fire crackers in his pocket.

DIED.

CASSADY.—On Friday morning, July 6, THOMAS CASSADY, in the 38th year of his age.

The funeral will take place SUNDAY, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Thomas Neely, South Pittsburgh, near the south end of the Monongahela Bridge. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

MOTHERAL.—On Friday, July 6th, at Braddocksfield, WILLIAM S. MOTHERAL, youngest son of Samuel S. and Isabella G. Motheral, aged 1 month.

Funeral TO DAY at half past two o'clock, at Mt. Union Cemetery.

HILLDALE CEMETERY.—The beautiful "God's-acre," the latest suburban place of sepulture, except one, in this county, situated on New Brighton road, immediately north of Allegheny. For burial lots, permits or plans, call at Central Drug Store of COOL & CLANEY, Allegheny City. jy7:d

RHIGOLENE!
The Greatest Discovery of the Age.
Better Than Laughing Gas.
There is no longer any necessity for you to "go to sleep," with the risk of never awakening, for you can now have your teeth extracted "and know everything that is going on," and yet not experience the slightest pain. 'Tis strange but true, and by calling upon Dr. QUINCY A. SCOTT, and examining his new process, you will be convinced. He gives a full set of Artificial Teeth, with beautiful gums, for $8, such as others charge $10 for; a full set for $10 which others charge $12 for, and a full set for from $12 to $15, which we will guarantee to be better than can be made at any other establishment, at any price. He gives Laughing Gas free of charge, in every case, and makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered.
N. B.—Other parties have advertised this new agent before they were prepared to use it: in fact before they were supplied with the necessary apparatus, but the public are assured that Dr. Scott never advertises anything but what he is prepared to do. SAVE THYSELF.
A CURE FOR INTEMPERANCE.
Dr. S. Cutter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.
The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine Discovery to the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to his discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impedities of the blood. As a nervine is always the choice of the Stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, opium, morphia, arsenic, tobacco, &c. as it removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulant; in Headache, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.
Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, has established its reputation, as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is prescribed now by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants and sedatives. In Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Epiliptic Fits, Nervous Twitchings, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and Retail Agent,

GENERAL GEARY ON COAL.

Not many days ago telegraphic dis patches announced that General GEARY was at Washington, deeply interested in securing such an adjustment of the Tariff as would protect the miners of bituminous coal in Pennsylvania from foreign competition. Beyond these announcements we known nothing of the matter. But the Troy (N. Y.) Whig is highly indignant with General GEARY, and expresses the mild hope that if he has been so engaged, "he will be beaten" by Mr. CLYMER. It follows on with a tirade which demonstrates how easy it is for fluent people to write glibly about topics of which they know nothing. Let us take a specimen:

"The people have been the victims of extortionate and exorbitant prices on coal quite long enough. Last winter in this city they were compelled to pay fifteen dollars per ton by a monopolizing combination. The extortions practiced in the coal trade have been little less than downright swindles. The transportation lines combined and put up prices of freight enormously. The owners of mines also combined, and in fact every one connected with the trade conspired to keep up prices, and none seemed satisfied with moderate profits."

Not the slightest proof is offered to sustain these incriminations. None exists. There is not a particle of fact in any of the statements, as every man acquainted with the details of the coal trade knows perfectly well.

The Companies concerned in transporting coal to market may be divided into two sorts—those that mine and sell coal, and those that do not, but only carry it at a stipulated price, the same as other descriptions of freight. The larger part of the coal is transported by the latter companies. There is no practicable basis on which these two sorts of companies can combine.

Of the Companies that freight only their own coal, some of the heaviest have regularly every fortnight, for years, put up fifty thousand tons each at public auction, in New York, and sold in lots to the highest bidder. The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company and the Pennsylvania Coal Company have been in the New York Courts steadily for ten years, one of them trying to put up tolls and the other to put them down. The Pennsylvania Coal Company is so completely at loggerheads with the Erie Railway Company, on the question of tolls, that its business by rail has been entirely suspended since last March, and is not likely to be resumed this summer, making a deficit in the supply of 800,000 tons. These are but samples of the disagreements among Coal Companies respecting coal freights. Surely with such facts existing our Troy contemporary must either have a supreme contempt for the intelligence of its readers, or else itself be in a condition of stolid ignorance on the whole matter on which it undertook so oracularly to discourse.

Equally baseless is the charge that the "owners of mines" have combined. Transportation Companies, owning mines, have a direct interest in reducing the price of coal in the mining districts. This conflict of interest is perpetual. Any man who spends a week in Luzerne county, making inquiries on this point, will soon satisfy himself that it is simply impossible to bring the transportation companies into combination with the individual owners of coal mines to enhance prices. To use a Wall street phrase, the one set are bulls and the others set bears of the coal trade in the districts in which they operate.

The only combination that has existed in the Anthracite regions has been on the part of the miners against the owners, both individual and corporate. Last year several of the largest Companies entirely ceased business for ninety days in resistance of this combination, and then only partially succeeded. This cessation of business caused a material advance in the price of coal last season. The rise was not the result of combination, but of resistance thereto.

Up to 1863 the coal trade of Pennsylvania did not yield an average amount of profit. Vast losses were from time to time incurred. Combinations were attempted and found to be impossible. The consumers had the advantage of cheap fuel. In 1863, '64 and '65 the coal trade flourished, by reason of the increased demand, and the impracticability of building new transportation lines rapidly enough to increase the supply ratably to the augmented consumption. All concerned in the coal trade made unprecedented profits, and indemnified themselves for previous losses. This year the coal trade is not clearing ten per cent. on the capital invested, or anything like it.

THE WAR.

Space and time prevented us yesterday from completing our panorama of the European war-pieces, and we shall therefore to-day devote part of a column to the completion of our sketch. We described the action of the Frankfort Diet on the portentous vote of the 14th. By the subsequent withdrawal of Prussia this body really became dissolved and extinct; but the friends of Austria thought differently. They resolved to remain in session and prevail upon the foreign embassadors to remain in Frankfort. Thus this shadow of a shadow lingers out a precarious existence, awaiting a death as sure in regard to fact, as it is uncertain in regard to time. If in its times of prosperity it had evinced but half the energy which it now shows in its death-struggle, this fratricidal war would never have occurred. Its spasmodic efforts resemble very much the last struggle of any other dying creature, and will, though unintentionally, have the tendency of involving in its ruin its supporters, the numerous princes and potentates of little power and less capacity infecting the body politic of Germany.

In the same manner as the portion of the Diet mentioned above have excluded Prussia from its body, that State and her few supporters have flung back the gauntlet and constituted a body of their own. After declaring the action of the Diet illegal, they have voted Austria, or rather the German provinces of Austria, (because only these were hitherto represented in the Diet) out of the confederation. A new constitution is so formed to be submitted to the vote of the German people, and the relations of the Austrian duchies are to be regulated by common action of the new body. This indicates a resolution to conquer them, because it is only conquered territory whose political affairs can be regulated without their consent. There is no doubt that Prussia intends acting on the offensive, but whether she will succeed, is a question of time. Thus far she has done admirably. The discontent at home is dying out—we mean the political discontent, not that occasioned by famine and want—and the feverish activity of the government is beginning to seize the masses. Their contingent is brought to the immense size of seven hundred thousand men, and the rapidity with which these masses are hurled over the border is significant. Readiness of attack generally indicates strength, and lends the prestige of success to the invading masses. On the other hand the weaker party generally satisfies itself with defensive preparations, and in this light we cannot help seeing the inactivity of the Austrians, although we admit that there are few rules without exceptions. We cannot help feeling amused, when we read sentences like the following in our exchanges: Austria has suffered the Prussians to possess themselves of Dresden and of Leipsic, to gain important advantages, but only wait; it is undoubtedly for good reasons. Let the Prussians fortify themselves; BENEDICK will soon push forward and drive the invaders back.

Such cant we hear in the ring, when one of the combatants has got his hand sprained or one of his eyes closed by a well directed blow of his antagonist. We hear it on the race grounds, when one courser has gained on the rest, and the anxious betters on the backward animals try to keep up their courage against hope. We maintain that it is always safer and easier to prevent than to deprive, and that if the Austrians were incapable to prevent the Prussians from occupying Saxony, it will be a good bit harder for them to drive them out again, after they have fortified themselves to their heart's content.

To-morrow we shall likely have further news from Europe, and probably be able to see more clearly into the Italian campaign. There the interest of liberty and its adherents is centered, for if we merely hope again for freedom from the war in Germany, we expect it with certainty from the campaign on the Mincio. God speed the Right and give succor to the just cause.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The largest income in Chicago is that of P. Schuttler, the wagon manufacturer, which is $153,135.

—Sherman says the Indians will sign a treaty with one hand and snatch a scalp with the other.

—The new city directory of New York, just issued, contains 176,511 names, an increase over last year of 10,367.

—The old Boston Church, on "Church Green," dating as far back as 1719, is to be torn down, and the site devoted to commerce.

—It is reported that General F. P. Blair will stump Iowa against General Dodge, and that Mr. Doolittle will stump the First District for Fitz Henry Warren.

—The two Memphis editors returned from their duelling expedition to Mississippi unharmed. They were arrested at Hernando and bound over to keep the peace.

—"Dr." Mary E. Walker predicts female suffrage and office holding in this country within the next ten years, and thinks the Southern States will lead off in this great reform.

—The saying of a White Mountain stage driver to a New Yorker sitting with him, "I s'pose if I went to New York I should gawk around as you folks do up here," is not bad.

—A gentleman of St. Louis, who has a farm in the vicinity of that city, has just discharged a German tenant for eating a fine colt belonging to the former, and much valued by him.

—Mrs. Mary Ann Lynch, of Binghamton, N. Y., took a dose of morphine "to prevent her head from aching," which placed her beyond the reach of her drunken, cruel husband.

—Gilder Weazel, an Alabama negro, was arrested for choking his wife, and the forgiving partner of Gilder's bosom attempted to exculpate the Weazel by saying, "Dat's de way we plays."

—A negro in King William county, Va., killed a black snake eight feet long, whose stomach contained a young rabbit, five partridge eggs, two frogs, two hen's eggs, a lizard, and a small chicken.

—A woman in Anamosa, Iowa, last week got a decree of divorce on account of her husband's intimacy with a certain widow. The husband procured a certificate the same day and married the gay widow.

—A Mr. Lake, of Chicago, an enthusiastic numismatologist, it is said, has obtained, by the assistance of various missionaries in China, a complete set of Chinese coins from the year 245 B. C. to the present dynasty.

—An English paper relates that Rev. Paul Hamilton, a Scottish clergyman, preached a farewell sermon to the ladies of Ayr, not a little to the surprise of his fair auditory, gave out his text—"And they fell upon Paul's neck and kissed him."

—The fertility of English novelists has often been animadverted upon in the German press; but what is to be said of an authoress (Mrs., or Miss Kathinka Litz) who, under the name of K. Th. Lianitzka, is about to publish twenty-eight volumes all at once?

—David Quinn, philosopher, pamphleteer and spiritual psychologist, has memorialized Congress, in an elaborate pamphlet, praying that august body to re-establish slavery in these United States. David formerly took his daily rations in Cincinnati; his domicile is now in the high and mighty city of Chicago.

—The post mortem examination of a little girl, aged seven years, who died in Bethlehem, Connecticut, revealed the fact that her death was caused by particles which had been bitten from her finger nails. They were swallowed, and, sticking into the sides of her stomach, caused ulceration and death ensued.

—A steamer from Fort Benton reports 3,000 hostile Indians encamped within fifteen miles of the fort, but no hostile acts had been committed up to date of the steamer's departure. There had been further discoveries of rich gold diggings in the mountains; in one place four men had taken out $2,000 in a day.

—The most remarkable wedding anniversary on record has just been celebrated at Olmultz, Bavaria. A landed proprietor of that place gave a fete in honor of his golden wedding, and the united ages of husband and wife amounted to two hundred years. He was 103 and she 97, and they were married in 1791.

Saxony and Bavaria.

These are the principal allies of Austria among the minor German States. They will probably continue faithful to her as long as the fortunes of war are on her side, but not longer. In the last great European war, they allied to the Emperor Napoleon, (who raised them from principalities to kingdoms) until the hour of his reverses came, and then they deserted him for a stronger alliance.

On the great battle-field of Leipsic, fought in October, 1813, 8,000 Saxon troops, who were intrusted with an important position on the French side, went over to the Allies in the heat of the engagement, giving to those they had left the benefit of their guns as they passed over. This act of most unparalleled treachery greatly increased the defeat of the French, and obliged them to retire from Germany.

This battle of Leipsic is distinguished as the one in which the largest number of combatants were engaged that is recorded in modern history. It is known as the battle of the nations. The allies—Russia, Prussia, Austria, Germany and Sweden—brought into the field 290,000 men. The French and Italians were 175,000 strong, making nearly 500,000 soldiers in all.

Bavaria was faithful to France until she retreated from Germany, when she passed quickly over to the other side. Retiring from Leipsic with the wreck of his army to France, Napoleon found the way barred against him by the Bavarian forces, posted in very strong positions on the principal roads. It was only after desperate fighting and great generalship that Napoleon succeeded in dispersing his late allies—those who had basked with him in the sun of his prosperity, but fled the moment the cold blast of winter came upon his fortunes. They are small States situated in the vicinity of large and powerful ones, and it is only by looking out sharply after their own interests, and never being found with the weaker forces, that they maintain a separate existence.

GEORGE MUIR, of Armstrong's Coal Works, Penn township, Allegheny county, speaks as follows of the REV. E. A. WILSON'S Great Remedy for Consumption: "I was reduced so low with consumption that I was unable to leave my bed, and my physicians informed me that they could do nothing more for me, case being utterly hopeless, that I had not certainly over a month to live. At this stage I was induced to try REV. E. A. WILSON'S REMEDY, and to-day I am as well as any man in the world. If there are any who doubt this statement, they can call and see me, (as per above address) and I will give them all the particulars of my extraordinary recovery." The sole agency for the sale of WILSON'S CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY in Pittsburgh is JOSEPH FLEMING, DRUGGIST, No. 84 Market Street. Sent by mail anywhere on receipt of $3,50 jy6:TFS

THE FOURTH AT PHILADELPHIA.

The Procession of Color Bearers—Flag Receptions—The Prayers and Speeches—The Soldiers' Orphans—Presentation of a Medal to General Meade and of a Sword to General Humphreys.

PHILADELPHIA, July 4, 1866.

Dear Gazette:—With many other Pittsburghers your correspondent was here to-day and witnessed the grand and imposing ceremonies attending the reception of the flags carried by Pennsylvania regiments during the recent four years of bloody war against treason and rebellion. It was, indeed, a grand display, almost equaling the reviews of the great armies of the Union at Washington, after the close of hostilities. It is not my purpose to enter into elaborate details, but to give a brief outline of what attending Pittsburghers saw and heard. By Tuesday night, the 3d, there had been arrivals—in the aggregate very large—from different parts of the State of those who had served as color bearers and in other capacities in the army. Great dignitaries had been announced as in town—Generals Meade, Hancock, Geary, Crawford, Governor Curtin and others—and on the evening of the day were serenaded at the La Pierre House, on Broad street. All went on harmoniously and merrily, and the morning of the glorious Fourth dawned with an unclouded sky. Soon the streets were thronged with people, principal places of business closed, and ere the hour of ten arrived, the vicinity of Broad and Arch streets, whence the procession was announced to start, those thoroughfares were jammed with human beings, horses and vehicular conveyances. At the head of the procession were mounted police officers, who kept the streets clear, from curb to curb, as far as possible, and following them came General Winfield Scott Hancock and staff, escorted by a detachment of the Philadelphia City Troop. The signal gun was fired at ten o'clock, from Penn Square, and General Hancock gave the order to march. Following General H., his staff and escort, came the First Division, led by Major General James S. Negley, of Allegheny county. In this Division were the companies which marched through Baltimore to Washington before the memorable 19th of April, 1861, all of them eastern organizations. At the head of the Second Division rode Maj. Gen. Robert Patterson and staff. This Division was composed of representatives, (color bearers and others) from forty-four Pennsylvania regiments, among others the following: 11th; 23d; 28th; Pennsylvania Reserves, (1st, 2d, 4th, 5th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th,) 63d, General J. B. Sweitzer; 50 men and color guard, armed and uniformed. This regiment carried a beautiful banner of white and blue silk, the obverse bearing the badge of the Fifth Corps, the reverse the names of thirty battles.

Eighty-first Regiment, Colonel Wilson; 50 men in dark dress.

Seventy-eighth, Colonel Wm. Sirwell, of Kittanning, 18 men with the battle flags.

139th, Gen. F. H. Collier, of Pittsburgh, 22 men. The colors of this regiment was one of the three first stands of National flags placed on the works at Petersburg, April 2d, 1865, and the color bearer gained one-third of the prize offered by General Grant for those who performed that daring feat.

The Third Division was under charge of General Charles T. Campbell, a most noble and fearless soldier, formerly commander of the 57th P. V. organized in the west. His division consisted solely of artillery men.

The Fourth Division, consisting of Cavalry, was led by General D. McM. Gregg.

Next in order came Major General G. G. Meade, with whom was carried the purple battle flag of the commander of the army of the Potomac.

Major Gen. John W. Geary led the Fifth Division, comprised, among others, of the 77th, Col. Rose; 85th, Col. Howell's; 100th, (Roundheads,) Col. Leasure; 20th, Col. Geo. S. Gallupe; 29th, Col. Hambright; 105th, Col. T. F. Lehman; 101st, organized by Col. D. B. Morris; 102d, organized by Col. Rowley; 61st, Col. Orr; 155th, led by Gen. A. L. Pearson, and to which he is indebted for his * *.

The Sixth Division was assigned to Gen. S. W. Crawford. With it were Gov. Curtin and staff in barouches, and some six hundred and fifty soldiers orphans, escorted by a delegation of firemen as a guard of honor. The girls were hauled in ambulances of different fire companies, and the boys walked.

The Seventh (and last) Division was under the care of Gen. John R. Brooke, and consisted of the Grey Reserves of Philadelphia.

The procession was one hour and twenty minutes in passing the corner of Broad and Chestnut. The right of the line reached the Walnut street gate of Independence Square about half past eleven o'clock, and the soldiers marched into the enclosure.

Entering the square on either hand were presented semi-circular stands rising one above another from the green beneath to the branches of the trees, which have waved in the square almost since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. On the east the hundreds of orphans of the fallen braves were seated, and at intervals they burst forth in song which touched the hearts of all. The seats on the west were principally occupied by ladies, and the main stand in the centre devoted mainly to use of Generals and other officers. While the square was filling with thousands, and order had been requested by Gen. Harry White, an earnest prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Brainerd. Following this, was a speech by Gen. Meade, who formally presented to Gov. Curtin the colors of the different organizations represented. In closing, the General presented the Governor the standard of the 3d Pennsylvania as the representative of the others. After a short interval, the Governor made, in reply, the oration of the occasion. Chaplain W. R. Gries next returned "thanks to Almighty God for victory and the return of peace," the assembled multitude reverently bowing their heads as he prayed.

Generals Hancock, Geary and Negley briefly responded to repeated calls, and afterward the flags were formally handed over to the Adjutant General of the State, by General Joshua T. Owen, in a short speech. General Alex. Russell also briefly responding.

Thus ended the flag reception ceremonies, but other proceedings followed, which, your space admonishes, must be cut short. The annual meeting of the soldiers of '12 had been held, and an address from them was read, together with resolutions and toasts. In the afternoon Governor Curtin, accompanied by about 500 soldiers' orphan boys, visited the Union League House, and in the evening a most interesting ceremonial took place at the League on the occasion of the presentation of a gold medal to General Meade, and a sword to General Humphries. The presentation to General Meade was made by the Mayor of the city, Hon. Morton McMichael. The medal in diameter is 3¾ inches, and its weight is 14 oz. fine gold. The obverse of this medal bears a fine profile likeness of General Meade, with the inscription: "Presented July 4, 1866, to Major General George G. Meade, by the Union League of Philadelphia, as a token of the gratitude of his countrymen." Two stars beneath the portrait indicate the General's rank. On the reverse is a beautiful group, representing the Genius of America presenting the wreath of victory to General Meade, who is receiving it, and at the same time returning his sword in exchange. His right foot is placed upon a rebel flag. The inscription on the reverse is "The Victor at Gettysburg. The Deliverer of his State. The Faithful Soldier of Our Country, 1863."

The sword presentation to General Humphreys was made by Hon. George Gibbons, the General replying in his own behalf, after which Governor Curtin and others made speeches. The last speech was from the aged John Burns, of Gettysburg celebrity.

The display of fireworks arranged as a finale to the day's proceedings unfortunately did not take place, disappointing thousands, who had been led to anticipate something grand. A heavy rain which fell late in the afternoon damaged the fireworks appliances to such an extent that they would not properly ignite, and hence the non-fulfilment of the programme. A balloon ascension announced did not come off, also in consequence of the rain.

The celebration of the Fourth of July in Philadelphia, A. D., 1866, will be remembered as an important epoch in the history of our country. Pittsburgh, and the western portion of the State generally, was well represented in the countless throng and many of them marched in the procession. Quite a number extended their trip to New York and other points, but the majority returned during Thursday and yesterday.

I was requested to make note of the fact that some of the color bearers did not receive passes from the committee having charge of the matter. The delegation of the 101st Pennsylvania Volunteers was informed, almost at the last moment, that the passes were exhausted; but fortunately, through the energy of their late Colonel, D. B. Morris, and the generosity of the Superintendent of the Railroad Company, they were provided with tickets, and got to Philadelphia in good shape.

There was some complaint among Pittsburghers at their being slighted by the Philadelphia papers, the Press, for instance, having ignored, in its report, the 61st and 62d regiments, and fault was found with some of the arrangements in Independence Square, a few imagining they were kept from enjoying certain privileges given to others not as well entitled to them, if at all. I have no idea that the omission to mention any Pittsburgh organization was the result of design, and as to the other complaints the same may be said. The arrangements were not complete in all details, but I did not see wherein, all things considered, they could have been much better. H.

Struck Her.

Elizabeth Kinney appeared before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, and made oath against Bernard Cohen for assault and battery. It appears that the accused, whilst slightly inebriated, entered the house of the prosecutrix on Webster street, and after using the most opprobrious epithets toward her, struck her a severe blow in the back, from the effects of which, to use her own words, "she almost died." A warrant was issued for the arrest of Bernard, but owing to the fact that he had left the city for a brief pleasure trip to Washington county, the police were unable to gain possession of his body. The accused is a peddler by profession, and formerly boarded with Mrs. Kinney.

Fall of a Brick Pile.—The immense brick pile, that had for a few days blockaded Fourth street, in the vicinity of the Lafayette Hall ruins, fell on Thursday with a tremendous crash causing an intense excitement in the neighborhood, until the real state of affairs was ascertained. It is to be hoped that this nuisance will not be re-erected. On any thoroughfare it would be an unsightly nuisance, but on a narrow street, such as Fourth, it is doubly so. If it had been as well papered as its fellows on Fifth street, it would have defied the assaults of man and time, for an indefinite period.

West Virginia.—The Union State Convention will be held on the 30th August, to nominate a State Ticket, to choose candidates for Congress and Vacant State Senatorships.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Pardon of Deserters from the Regular Army—The New Tax Bill—Movements of General Sherman—The Statement of the Public Debt.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington:

A general order has been issued by the direction of the President, that all deserters from the regular army who rejoin their regiments at any military post or recruiting rendezvous, prior to the fifteenth of August, will be returned to duty without punishment, on condition that they will make up the lost time, and forfeit their pay.

The Committee on Conference on the Tax Bill have agreed upon the following, among other provisions: While street railways can increase their single fares one cent to cover the tax, a proviso requires that they shall sell tickets by the package with only the exact tax added to the regular rate. The paper question stands as fixed by the Senate, viz: Printing paper of all descriptions is free and other paper is taxed three per cent. ad valorem. The tax of one-tenth of one per cent. on all auction sales is agreed to. The tax on ready made clothing is fixed at two per cent., and tailors, milliners, shoemakers, &c., are to be exempt from tax as in the House Bill, when their work, exclusive of material, does not exceed one thousand dollars annually. Cordage rope and cable, made of vegetable fibre, are put on the free list.

The Treasury Department is busily engaged in preparing the formal and official statement of the public debt, for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1866, and will not therefore publish the usual informal monthly statement for July 1st. From four to six weeks will probably elapse before the various accounts can be balanced, returns received, and the official statement be ready for publication.

The War in Germany.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The Herald's foreign correspondence shows that the monarchs and people were evidently astonished at the rapid and successful movements of the Prussian armies in Hanover and Saxony.

The report of the occupation of Dresden and Leipsic produced considerable excitement among the citizens of Vienna, but nothing like consternation or excitement.

The utmost and most perfect secrecy was maintained relative to the Austrian plan of campaign.

It was alleged in Paris that the Parisians discarded the Prussians and the policy of Prussia, while on the other hand we are informed from Berlin that the Emperor of France is in hearty accord with Bismark and King Frederick William. It appears as if Napoleon was simply confused.

The Italian volunteers on the right bank of the Po were in sight of the Croatin sentinels doing duty for Austria on the other side.

The Duke De Chartres, Louis Phillippe's grand son, tendered his services as an officer to Victor Emanuel, but the offer was declined by the Italian Cabinet.

Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—A double brick house on Vine Street Hill, occupied by S. S. Carpenter and Dr. Wheeler, was destroyed by fire on the 4th. Loss, $15,000.

The total loss in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, by the fire will reach one hundred thousand dollars. Twenty-one buildings were destroyed, covering an area of nearly two acres.

Another Address from Gen. Sweeny.

NEW YORK, July 6.—General Sweeney publishes an address to the Fenian Brotherhood in America, in which he defends his course in the recent raid on Canada. He recommends the organization of circles and the formation of military companies by the members under their chosen leaders. He dates the address at St. Albans, July 4th.

Another Destructive Fire.

CHERRY VALLEY, N. Y., July 6.—All the buildings on the north side of Main street, in this place, from the barns attached to Stearn's Hotel to J. Suttlife's house, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss from seventy-five to one hundred thousand dollars. The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary

NOTICE TO THE Tax Payers
OF THE
Borough of Lawrenceville.
Whereas, by a Supplement of the Act of Assembly approved the 4th day of March, A. D., 1864, relating to the payment of the Borough Tax to the Treasurer within the limits of said Borough, the undersigned respectfully notifies the said tax payers that he is now in possession of the Duplicate for the payment of said tax, and ready to receive the same.
On all taxes paid on or before the first day of August, 1866, an allowance of five per cent. will be made.
On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of August and prior to the first day of September, must be paid in full.
On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of September, he shall add five per centum.
And on the first day of October in each year, the Treasurer shall make out a list of delinquent tax payers, with the amount due from each, with ten per centum additional added; provided that no additional amount shall be less than ten cents, and place the same in the hands of the High Constable, whose duty it shall be to receive the same under a penalty of fifty dollars; and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue to said constable his warrant to collect said tax, granting him all the powers and immunities now by law vested in collectors of county rates and levies. Provided that no further additional notice to tax payers shall be required than the advertisement, in one or more papers and by handbills. WM. JANCEY, Borough Treasurer, Corner of Butler and Dravo Streets.
The said Treasurer respectfully informs the tax-payers of said borough that he is Collector and Treasurer for the Lawrenceville School District, and is also prepared to receive their taxes, and invites them to call at his office in the Borough of Lawrenceville, at the corner of Butler and Dravo sts.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, July 6, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: Gold, 156¾@154¼; 1881's, 108¼; Five Twenties, 104¾; Ten Forties, 97½; Seven Thirties, 103½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R.R., 85¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago R.R., 97¼; Erie, 69; Western Telegraph, 58¾. Erie, as will be seen has made another "big jump," within a day or two—from 57¼ to 69.

Government bonds continue to be the great centre of attraction, both in and out of financial circles, and our people are beginning to discover that while it is the safest investment that can be made, it also makes a better return than almost any other security, taking the reliability into consideration, that can be found. As will be seen, from the quotations above, the whole list has advanced excepting 10-40's which remain inactive and unchanged; old 5-20s are scarce and ½ per cent better than yesterday, and 7-30s are also higher, having advanced ⅜ of a cent, though there is not much inquiry for them in this market at these figures.

We observe that many leading journals of the country are very severe in their comments on the national banks, and, perhaps, unnecessarily so. The New York Herald, not the best authority in the world, in referring to this subject, says:

"For a reform of the national banking system there exists an urgent necessity. The notes issued under it are an incubus, and have a tendency to lower the standard of our entire currency. To replace the whole of these with legal tender notes as speedily as possible should be the aim as much as it is duty of Congress. By this course a sound currency would be substituted for a doubtful one, at the same time that the interest now paid to the national banks on the bonds deposited with the Treasury as the basis of their circulation would cease with the cancellation of the bonds themselves. Moreover, the power of what now threatens to be a huge political financial machine would be weakened, and a host of "wild-cat country banks, which are at present so many sheres to unwary depositors, would be weeded out of existence by the salutary measure we advocate. The subsidy of nearly twenty millions per annum, and still on the increase, which is paid to national banks in the form of interest, is something which the taxpayers of this country will not much longer endure, and in view of the oppressive burdens which the people have to bear, it is an abuse that verges upon an outrage.

—The New York Commercial says:

There is some talk in usually well informed circles of the probability of the consolidated loan bill being early pressed through Congress; at the same time, there appears to be no definite ground for supposing that Mr. McCulloch's political opponents will not be found opposing him in this measure.

The feeling is very general that something ought to be done during the prevailing extreme case of money toward putting into a permanent form the large amount of short obligations of the government.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The increased speculation at the Stock Exchange creates more demand for Money. Call loans range from four to five per cent., and prime discounts from five to six and a-half per cent. There was rather more activity in Sterling Exchange. Bankers bills sold at 1,08⅞@1,09¼. Gold closed up firmly at 1,54⅞@1,54½. The speculative feeling is not so brisk. Government Securities were again higher towards the close, with a good demand. The following were the closing quotations: Coupons, 1881, 1,08⅞@1,08¾; Five-Twenty Coupons, 1865, 1,04⅛@1,04¼; Ten-Forty Coupons, 97½@98; June Seven-Thirties, 1,03⅛@1,03⅜; July Seven-Thirties, 1,03⅛@1,03⅜.

The New York stock exchange and open board of brokers each voted, to-day, three thousand dollars for the sufferers in the Portland fire. There was no four o'clock call of stocks. At the last open board there were 8,000 shares of Erie bought in under the rule for the account of Mr. Ralph Dayton, who has failed to make his deliveries. The stock market opened at 69¼, and closed at 68¾.

Petroleum and mining shares were generally quiet and steady this afternoon.

The Post's money article says there is more activity in the loan market, which is quite easy. Discounts quiet at 5½@6. The stock market is animated and higher. Governments in lively request. Railroad shares active and especially Erie, Reading, Michigan Southern and Northwestern. The latest quotation for Erie is 68⅜. Foreign exchange is firm.

The Commercial's Money article says: The improvement in the Stock market is well sustained. There was more activity at the morning session, extending to the miscellaneous list. Some of the leading parties in the upward movement have got out of their stock and with a very handsome profit. Michigan Central is being manipulated for a rise and advanced ⅜. The long pending movement in North Western appears to have culminated. Some of the larger holders of the stock were sellers at this morning's advance. The price closed ⅜ higher. The preferred stock closed at 61⅜, an advance of ½. Governments continue very active. In addition to brisk home demand for investment, there is also an extensive inquiry from foreign bankers. Foreign Exchange is rather more active and firmer. Gold speculation lacks interest; owing to the diversion of operators to the Stock Exchange. The premium is rather stronger under a large demand for certain duties.

New York Produce Markets.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Cotton little more active at unchanged prices; 35c for middling. Flour generally dull, and inferior grades 5@10c lower. There is some little business doing in Extra State for export to London; $7,70@8,70 for Extra State; $8,75@10,20 for Extra round hoop Ohio, and $10,25@13,75 for trade brands, closing dull; included in sales are 1,500 barrels Extra State for export to London, part at $9,40 and the remainder at $6,00. Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—Flour and Wheat are very dull. Mess Pork is in fair demand at $32. Whisky steady at $2,27, in bond. Gold 1,53.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 6, 1866. }

There are no new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. The demand for the leading commodities continues very limited, while prices have undergone no essential change.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in fair demand but unchanged. Sale of 2 cars No. 1 Chicago Oats at 49; 1 do do at 50; and 500 bush prime Ohio Oats, in lots, at 60—from store. Corn is dull but unchanged; sale of 2 cars prime shelled at 80. Buckwheat is dull but unchanged at $2. No movement in Rye or Barley.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is very firm and advancing. We now quote at 17 for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams, according to quality. Lard is dull but firm at 22½@23 for steamed and kettle rendered. Small sales of Mess Pork at $33,50@$34,00 per bbl.

FLOUR—Is firm with a fair local demand, but prices have undergone no change. Sales at $10,50 to $11,50 for Spring Wheat Family; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16,00 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling from store at $6,50@6,75.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car at 90 cts for Bran and $1 for Shorts; 1 car shipstuffs at $1; and 1 car coarse Middlings at $1,40.

BUTTER—Continues dull but prices are unchanged; small sales of firkin Butter at 23; and packed is quoted at 20 to 22, as to quality.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged. Small sales at 18 to 20 cents, the outside figure for fresh packed. Supply somewhat in excess of the demand.

POTATOES—But very little old crop in market. New crop are still quoted at $8 per bbl, and scarce.

CHEESE—Continues very dull and the supply is considerably ahead of the demand. Sales of Western Reserve at 15@16.

HAY—Is getting rather dull and weak, under the influence of increased receipts, and prices are tending downward. We continue to quote at $20 to 25 per ton, as to quality.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is wanted at $2,70@2,75, and but very little arriving. No demand for Clover or Timothy Seeds.

SORGHUM—Continues dull notwithstanding there is very little in market. Small sales of prime at 50 to 55.

SALT—Is reported firm and supply hardly equal to the demand, at $2,50 per bbl, on track, and the usual advance for small lots from store.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 6, 1866 }

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the general tone of the Crude market, nor, we regret to say, are there any indications at present for such a desirable event. It is true, there is but comparatively little oil arriving or offering, but it is equally true that there is little or no demand, and the market continues dull and depressed, with a drooping tendency. Bulk oil is offered at 12½@13, with some few buyers at 12@12½, while barrelled oil cannot be quoted above 12 cents, packages returned; 17, packages included, on the spot; and 17¼ to 17½, packages included, free on board cars. Sale of 450 bbls, in bulk, at 12½, and we have also a sale of 100 bbls (46 gravity) reported at 11c, bbls returned. Advices from Oil City report crude very dull, and prices are nominal at $3,90 to $4.

REFINED—There was a little more inquiry for bonded oil to-day, and by some means or other there were a couple of sales effected at a slight advance—250 bbls for September delivery in Philadelphia, buyers option, at 42½; and 250 for October, same option, at 43¼. These sales, we have good authority for saying, could not have been duplicated, and, while there is no question about their genuineness, it does seem a little mysterious. We can also report a sale of 500 bbls for November delivery in Philadelphia, at 44½; and 3000 bbls for this month, at 39. There may have been other sales, but the above were all we could pick up. Free Oil is dull and neglected and prices are entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals continue very light, and no material increase need be expected until there is a rise in the river. The following were reported to-day:

H. McKelvy	57	J. C. Young	25
Geo. Shaffer	124	Jas. Wilkins	25

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 6, 1866. }

The market is firm and moderately active, and, for desirable brands, there is a good demand at very full rates. The transactions, in the aggregate, were hardly up to the usual standard, but the scarcity of good brands as well as the recurrence of the "National Holiday," had a tendency to retard operations. Common irons are quiet and unchanged. The following sales were reported:

RIVER NEWS.

The river has undergone but little change since our last report, the pier marks still indicating two feet. The weather continues oppressively hot in the sun; though at times it becomes quite cloudy, with every appearance of rain.

The Leni Leoti arrived and cleared for Parkersburg, and the Forest City will leave for the same point to-day at noon. The Elector and Gallatin left for Brownsville last evening, and the Fayette and Chieftan will leave for the same point this evening at five o'clock.

The Camelia, Capt. Lytle, will leave for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi to-day without fail, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind. The Camelia is a low water boat, and will doubtless get through with but little difficulty. The clerk, Mr. W. C. McKnight, will see that all having business with the boat receive every proper attention.

The Rose Hambleton, if she did not get off last night will leave for St. Louis to-day without fail. Although the Rose is owned in Cincinnati, her commander, Capt. Charley Beers, is an old Pittsburgher.

The Kate Putnam has not made her appearance at the landing yet, and we fear she will not until there is a rise in our rivers.

Capt. Saint, a well-known Allegheny River steamboatman, informs us that he has spring connected with his residence, opposite Sharpburg, in Collins township, that is flowing a considerable quantity of oil. The oil is of a very fine quality for illuminating purposes, and he has already sold three barrels of it for that purpose, besides what he has used in his own house. It is a regular oil spring, though at times it produces more oil than others, and occasionally it gives out almost entirely.

A St. Louis telegram, dated July 3d, says: About four o'clock this morning a fire was discovered near the after guards on the boiler deck of the steamer Lorena, from Pittsburgh. The fire was discovered by a watchman, who extinguished it with a few buckets of water. Fire caught from a bucket of hot ashes placed near an escape pipe twenty-four hours previous. The levee above and below was crowded with boats, and had not the fire been extinguished as it was, we should have been under the necessity, doubtless, of chronicling one of the most disastrous and destructive steamboat conflagrations that has visited our city for a long time.

The Petrolia, from White river, arrived at Memphis Friday, with the crew of the sunken steamer J. S. Hall. The crops along White river, especially the upper part, were doing well, though overrun with weeds, as labor was scarce.

FAST TIME.—On Saturday, June 23d, the steamer Daniel Drew made the run from Yonkers to New York City, on the Hudson river, in twenty-eight minutes and twenty-two seconds; distance, seventeen miles. This is the quickest time on record, and fully up to railroad speed.

The America, at Dubuque, was attached last Friday week, while she lay at the levee. One of her hands left the boat and not procuring his claim of $9,50, immediately had the boat seized, but the matter was settled by paying the debt.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Wednesday says Captain Marratta has 8600 sacks corn, besides other freight, engaged for the Emma No. 2, and will sail for Pittsburgh to-morrow evening. The corn is for Cincinnati and Gallipolis. The Shamrock likewise leaves for the Ohio to-morrow.

INSURE YOUR LIFE IN THE CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.
THE ONLY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN AMERICA that now makes and pays an Annual CASH DIVIDEND on the first and each subsequent payment of premium. Its CASH CAPITAL, an accumulation of $2,000,000, is securely invested in public stocks and mortgages of REAL ESTATE. It is now in its 16th year of business, and has paid to the WIDOWS AND ORPHANS of its members the sum of ONE MILLION DOLLARS. To this date not a single case of litigation has occurred, an evidence that liberality and fair dealing is a specialty with this Company.
The policies of this Company are not forfeited by reason of non-payment of premium after the second year. No payments required after ten years, but policies continue good through life.

It is admitted by our most learned physicians that DR. ROBACK'S BITTERS combine the properties of a gentle laxative, an efficient anti-bilious agent, and the best stomachic known to the world.

ROBACK'S

BITTERS should be used by convalescents to strengthen the prostration, which always follows acute diseases.

In the bilious districts of the West and South there has, for a long time, been much needed, an article of stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of

Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all Diseases of a similar nature, and a preventive for bilious derangement, regulating the system, and giving tone to the digestive organs, than any other known remedy.

Now that the war is over, there will be thousands seeking homes in the South. No person who values his life should go there without having constantly at hand the BITTERS, as a safeguard against epidemic and maladies engendered by miasma and poisonous water.

Travelers to and all residents of, the rank bottoms of the west and south, and the valley Mississippi and its tributaries, should provide selves with the

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with it by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire it.
WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1867.
READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough. JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny,

PITTSBURGH, December 31.
A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: B. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1866.
A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.
JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.
Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.
January 30, 1860.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1865.
DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.
I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.
In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.
Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1866.
I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken. J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.
E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.
N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad with it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs that ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood st., and procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.

CHOLERA
DISARMED!!!
The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed!

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 298, 300 and 302 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, 42 Cedar Street.

This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gases and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's office.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 20, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:
Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors.
T. ROESSEL & CO.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:
Dear Sir: We pronounce it, without exception, to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.
C. A. STETSON, Astor House.

N. B.—These Disinfectants are used by the scavengers, under the direction of the Sanitary Police of the Metropolitan Health Department, N. Y.
